Dear Ronan,

Many thanks. I will ask Una to follow up with Des Henry and Mary Pracht about the operational arrangements.

Kind regards,

Carol

Subject: Payment arrangements

Hi Carol,

Just coming back to you re exploring the possibility of DSP acting as payment agent for those who leave IPAS accommodation and who receive a payment from DECIY.

For the purposes of the white paper could I suggest that the most efficient way forward is to mirror what already happens on the Magdalene laundry payments, which DSP administers on behalf of DCEDIY. This is done on the basis of a payment file issuing from DCEIY to DSP setting out the payees and the payment amounts, which are then administered by DSP. We would also need to be notified if people achieve status or if the payment is to cease (e.g. where all avenues of appeal are exhausted) or where the payment amount is altered (e.g. where someone starts working).

In terms of administrative costs, these would be covered by DCEDIY. As a rough estimate we think 6 staff members would be required which would have to be covered within the DCEDIY ECF. A very rough estimate of IT development costs (assuming we remodel the current system for Magdalene laundry payments) would be in the ballpark of €1m-€1.2m.

If further discussion is required at this stage, could I suggest that a member of your team liaises with Mary Pracht and Des Henry on my side.

Regards
